4-18-1991

The Anti-Lope Vol. 1 No. 4

The Anti-Lope Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://openspaces.unk.edu/anti-lope

Recommended Citation
https://openspaces.unk.edu/anti-lope/4

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Underground Newspapers at OpenSPACES@UNK: Scholarship, Preservation, and Creative Endeavors. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Anti-Lope by an authorized administrator of OpenSPACES@UNK: Scholarship, Preservation, and Creative Endeavors. For more information, please contact weissell@unk.edu.
Again

What does BEN stand for? Better Education Now, Budget-cuts Educate No-one? I think not. What BEN stands for is Baseless Enlightened Neebaskins, Banal Effectless Nonsense, and Baffled Elective Negotiators!

What I am trying to say is where is your school spirit?

This highschool mentality is slowly sinking in to the backwash that is the "University System." We are no longer Top Dog of the state highschools, we are a faceless number when it comes to appropriations from Ben (the man, not the protest.) Ben Nelson is planning to make an education lid even lower than the one we voted Orr out of office for. 1.9%, and over the next two years our tuition will go up 20%

Can you afford this? We as a school cannot afford it. Programs and departments will have to be cut drastically. Our library needs new books desperately, does Ben know this?

It is our duty as UNK-HS students to let him know. Because the protest/weenie roast was so pathetic, we need to do something to raise hell here on campus (no one is going to Breckenridge soon are they?)

Write a letter to Ben. Don't know how to write? All the better. Do something, anything to help keep this school from becoming any more of a joke than it already is. And if your apathy is that great, and you don't want to see quality education at a reasonable price, do like so many others do and transfer to a school with a bright future.

Nuanda,
9th Grade
Exeter, NE

EDITOR'S NOTE
The content of this paper does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of the advertisers or the student body, faculty, and especially the administration of Kearney State High School.
Revolution Week

In the spring the streams bring melted snow from the highlands, flowers bloom, and the earth turns a bit greener. This spring, let's allow the flower of revolution to bloom into our high school. A week of revolution could bring more change than years of bureaucratic nonsense to the campus. Thus, I propose the following revolution schedule:

April 22- Take Action Against Outdated Books!
All students take a box to the library and check out 50 books a day (or as many as you can carry) which are outdated. Continue this daily until Friday when all the books will be brought to the new sports complex where we will build them into a giant castle of midevil books. This will represent the misappropriated funding to athletics instead of education.

April 23- Protest textbook profiteering
All students meet in front of the campus bookstore at 4:15 pm to protest book profiteering at student expense. Bring signs, a list of your books from last semester and of the ones you need for next semester so you can register in the new student book exchange.

April 24- Censorship Demonstration
Paste a penis (cut out or drawing) on the Neutered Bell Tower to demonstrate against censorship of future campus art or publication. (We'll cover the gong with dongs!

April 25- The Cave
Another night of verbal intercourse to show support for our new 24 hour coffee shop. Meet at 10:30 pm at the former Antler Snack Bar and bring your friends to indulge in an oral exchange of ideas.

April 26- All Student Skip Day
Are the instructors that incompetent to have to hold attendance over students heads to keep the classroom full? All students skip class and meet around the tower at 10:30 pm for a day of fun and attendance freedom! Bring lunches, frisbees, hacky sacks and make a day of it. Don't forget to bring your books to the sports complex for the castle building.

April 27- Spring Streak
All students attend the first annual "Spring Streak" to be cleansed of apathy forever! We will meet at midnight under the bell tower in bathrobes (and nothing else.) We will then streak across campus screaming, "APATHY BEGONE!"

THIS IS YOUR REVOLUTION... DON'T MISS IT!

-Phaedrus
The Nebraskan Student Union. In this building, real programing for real students is thought of, but usually not put into action. In this building the Student Activities Council is based. Usually, the final event of the academic year is a concert. This year KSC will have no concert.

The 1990-91 school year will end with comedians. I think the students can live with this, but we can’t live with where they are going to perform. The 90-91 finale will be held outside the student union. WHERE? That’s right; Nationally known presenters are going to do their show in front of the place where we eat. Why are we having a show in front of the Nebraskan if we have a multi-million dollar coliseum?

The answer lies deep within the union and the "administration" that runs it. Through interviews with people who work with her (but wish to remain anonymous) we have learned that Sharon Pelc is the main blockade in having a band, or comedian in the coliseum. By now I would think that many readers are asking, "Why would the director of the student union care if the Student Activities Council holds a concert in the coliseum?"

The reason is that she does not want the athletic department upset with her. She has told the students working under her that she does not want SAC to be the first student organization to have a major event in the coliseum. If SAC did this something might get damaged. She then turned around and told reporters that the reason In Living Color would perform outside was because the artists had stated that they prefer to work outside.

In all matters concerning the use of the coliseum, it is usually a faculty member of the union who gets in touch with John Arnold. One of John’s responsibilities is to decide what is to go on in the coliseum. John has been more than willing to let SAC use the coliseum, as long as it does not conflict with an athletic event. Until now, Sharon has led the to believe that it was the Athletic Department’s fault that the coliseum was not being used. We now know better.

-Antonymous

---

Coliseum Cover-up

EARTH DAY POW WOW

Thursday, April 18
7:00 pm Native American play, "Black Elk Speaks"
8:00 pm Native American poet, Elizabeth Cook Lynn
9:00 pm The Untold

Friday, April 19
5:00 pm Opening Ceremony of Pow Wow

Saturday, April 20
11:30 am Children’s Parade (26th st. and KSC Campus to Harmony Park. Staging begins at 10:30 am on Campus, any child with adult welcome)
12:30 pm to Dusk Pow Wow
1:00 pm Supervised children’s activities
1:00 pm to evening Bands and speakers

Sunday, April 21
1:00 pm to evening Bands and Speakers
1:00 pm to 5:00 Pow Wow

All events FREE!

Harmón Park

Dont miss it for the world!

Sponsored by:
Ecology Now, Native Americans, Food Coop, Wal-Mart, SAF
100% recycled unbleached paper
The human population of this planet is biggering and biggering at an alarming rate. Over five billion sweaty little bodies occupy the globe and without any natural enemies, the self indulged, gluttonous selfishness of humanity is wreaking havoc on our little green biosphere. This population explosion is squeezing our planet dry of resources, inflicting pollutive destruction upon her surface and destroying the natural web of life. Simply put, the more people put on this planet, the greater the stress put on the delicate web of life in which all living creatures are woven. Soon it will snap. Something must be done.

Not being a new problem, some solutions are already in progress. China, for example, housing over one fifth of the entire planetary human population has mandated strict birth control practices. A step in the right direction, but not big enough.

We must dispose of a large number of humans... but how?

CANNIBALISM is the answer.

The Question then becomes who shall be the predator, and who shall be the prey?

I think the answer can be likened to an ordinary trip to the grocery store. When shopping for meat, one generally looks for a healthy, tender, well marbled cut. A scrawny or tough piece will never do.

A third world thigh would be stringy and dry to eat because they work so hard for survival and are always starving. An American specimen, on the other hand, has a very mild lifestyle with generous portions at all meals. Yet another factor is to carefully choose the group that is causing the most destruction to the survival of the human race. Again the United States seems the likely selection for dinner. Of all the resources consumed on the planet, Americans greedily devour 80%. Representing only a mere 2% of the total population, this seems an ideal cyst to remove from civilization.

Yes the answer is clear- the American population needs to be devoured by the intelligent races on this planet before they have destroyed all that is good.

Bon Appetite!

Todd Anderson

Need a place for the summer? For more information call 234-5670 or 234-6886

RIGHT NEAR CAMPUS

The Anti-lope is looking to expand its staff next year in all areas- writers, photographers, cartoonists, editors and other fun distractions. Be a part of the movement! Simply send a little message to our P.O. box 1501 with your name and number and we'll give you a ring.

Anti-lope reserves the right to edit for length, NOT CONTENT
Well boys and girls here it is ... the final issue (for this semester.)

EDITOR'S NOTE
The content of this paper does not necessarily reflect the views or opinions of the advertisers or the student body, faculty, and especially the administration of Kearney State High School.

Remember, if you don't like what you're reading, you have as much of a right to put it down and walk away as we do to write it.

Again

Well...

What does BEN stand for? Better Education Now, Budget-cuts Educate Nobody? I think not. What BEN stands for is Baseless Enlightened Nebraskins, Banal Effectless Nonsense, and Baffled Elective Negotiators! What I am trying to say is where is your school spirit?

This highschool mentality is slowly sinking in to the backwash that is the "University System." We are no longer Top Dog of the state highschoool, we are a faceless number when it comes to appropriations from Ben (the man, not the protest.) Ben Nelson is planning to make an education lid even lower than the one we voted Orr out of office for. 1.9%, and over the next two years our tuition will go up 20%.

Can you afford this? We as a school cannot afford it. Programs and departments will have to be cut drastically. Our library needs new books desperately, does Ben know this?

Apathy is Alive and Well...

It is our duty as UNK-HS students to let him know. Because the protest/weenie roast was so pathetic, we need to do something to raise hell here on campus (no one is going to Breckenridge soon are they?)

Write a letter to Ben. Don't know how to write? All the better. Do something, anything to help keep this school from becoming any more of a joke than it already is. And if your apathy is that great, and you don't want to see quality education at a reasonable price, do like so many others do and transfer to a school with a bright future.

Nuanda,
9th Grade
Exeter, NE

Can you find the protest in this picture?