World War II Casualties

9-1-1944

William K. Aunspaugh

Follow this and additional works at: https://openspaces.unk.edu/wwii-casualties
Lt. William Aunspaugh is Reported Missing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three Nebraskans are missing in action in the European area, the war department said Monday. They are:

Missing in action in the Mediterranean area are S/Sgt. Robert H. Renner, son of Mrs. Lena M. Renner, Weeping Water, and 2nd Lt. Harlan J. Wenzinger, son of Mrs. Kathryn Buescher Wenzinger, Blue Hill.

Lieutenant Aunspaugh attended the Teachers college in Kearney and graduated in January, 1942.

Kearney, Broken — Gordon I. Willits, son of Claude C. Willits, Grand Island.

Sgt. Francis D. Delap, son of Hunter E. Delap, Lexington, was announced killed in the Mediterranean theater.

Lt. William K. Aunspaugh, Army Air Corps
A. B. Degree, 1942
Son of Mrs. Lily C. Aunspaugh
Gothenburg, Nebraska
Lost in forced landing in English Channel
September, 1944