"CHANCELLOR" SWILLS BOOZE IN NEBRASKAN NESTER HITS THE SAUCE IN ON-CAMPUS DRINKING SPREE: NO CASUALTIES YET REPORTED

Willy getting plowed on campus? Surely I jest! I only wish I was. Bill "Little Willy" Nester was downing free gin like it was going out of style last March when his corporate bigwig friends came to visit. While Campus Security was busy enforcing the alcohol policy elsewhere on campus, their hands were tied with regards to Nester. You see, if you have a corporate sponsor with a huge expense fund, you can drink all you want on campus, as long as you pay $1.25 per person per hour. The estimated attendance at the function was three hundred, making the hourly fee for ConAgra (Little Willy's pals) upwards of $400.00. Times this by a five hour event and you have the college raking in $2,000 of ConAgra money. Of course they won't discourage a little drunken stupor if they make that kind of money. I'll let Nester drink in my room for two grand, that's for sure. But it still kinda burns my ass to a change. manager from Ohio, can pull the wool over our eyes that he can

I have recently become aware of the positions of Campus Crusade for Christ and the Administration concerning condom use, and it disturbs me. They constantly stress abstinence, which is fine by us, but then further emphasize their point by claiming that condoms don't protect the wearer from disease. But using condoms is a very effective way to prevent contracting HIV. Despite the propaganda from the administration and Campus Crusade, condoms are effective, and it is not very likely that you can get AIDS from protected vaginal sex. But more importantly, by telling students that condoms provide no protection we are encouraging them to have unprotected sex. Nobody uses a condom because they like them, they use them because they prevent disease. If a student feels the condom is useless, he/she will go on with sexual relations without one. We the students at UNK claim that even bad sex is better than monkey spanking. If we continue to have sex we need to use condoms. They work much better than hope, and we will continue to have sex whether or not we have the Crusaders approval.

CALVIN: THIS AIN'T GONNA BE PRETTY

Calvin F. Ryan is getting screwed. The Admin has come to the realization that the administration is sucking $20,000 out of the library every year. The photocopiers in Calvin I's room annually, but the library doesn't get a dime. The real bite in the ass is that the library is responsible for repairing the copiers out of its own budget. How many times have you tried to use the copiers when one isn't out of order? This expense is being covered by the library's own budget instead of being used to broaden its scope of periodicals, or expand its book collection.

The Admin therefore demands that the administration that means you, must publish and justify this theft. We cannot allow thee to walk off with twenty Grand of library funds without a really good reason. This on-campus rape will not be tolerated.
