Books of the Month
May, 1926

GEORGE W. JACOBS & COMPANY

FREE DELIVERY—Any book named herein, sent free in the United States at the price stated.

GEORGE W. JACOBS & COMPANY
Booksellers and Stationers
1726 CHESTNUT STREET
Philadelphia
"One long irrepressible chuckle."
—The Tatler, London

WARRIORS IN UNDRESS
By F. J. HUDLESTON

The Librarian of the War Office in London proves that the heroes of the gun and sword are human after all beneath their military trappings. Many a chuckle lurks within the covers of this delectable book. The volume is beautifully printed on "Oldstyle" paper and contains 12 illustrations in gravure.

$3.50

By the author of "The Broad Highway"

THE HIGH ADVENTURE
By JEFFERY FARNOL

"Jeffery Farnol's first novel, 'The Broad Highway', has a real rival in his latest story, 'The High Adventure',... Mr. Farnol has achieved another story of chivalric youth that will reflect upon English fiction."—P. A. Kinsley in The Philadelphia Record.

Second Printing. $2.00

By the author of "The Slave Ship"

THE GREAT VALLEY
By MARY JOHNSTON

A romance of pioneer life in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, from 1737 to the close of the French and Indian War, by America's foremost historical novelist.

$2.00

MARY CHRISTMAS
By MARY ELLEN CHASE

A strangely beautiful little tale of a passionate Armenian woman peddler who, in her pilgrimage from village to village along the seacoast of Maine, touches with magic the lives and thoughts of a delightful American family.

$1.50

Boston LITTLE, BROWN & CO. Publishers
ASHES OF DESIRE

is the story of a passionate girl who disguised as a young man, takes passage on an ocean liner, facing many perils before a breath-taking climax.

"It is really more exciting than Ann's an Idiot." ($2.00).

HERE AND BEYOND
By Edith Wharton
An excellent addition to the highly acclaimed books by Mrs. Wharton is "Here and Beyond," a collection of six of her latest and most significant stories. Together they group into a well rounded whole with a great variety of theme and background and a wealth of appeal. Three of the tales, though psychic in nature, are not ghost stories in the true sense of the word, but stories of very real life, given an added poignancy by deft suggestions of the supernatural. The other tales are "The Temperate Zone," a study of the artistic temperament: "The Seed of the Faith," depicting a moral struggle in the mission field, and "Velvet Ear-Pads," a rollicking comedy of a delightful old professor. $2.50.

AFTER NOON
By Susan Ertz
As she did in "Madame Claire," Miss Ertz has written in her new book a story of delightful people that will appeal to a wide and discriminating reading public. In "After Noon" Charles Lester is left alone after the marriage of his grown daughters: and in spite of the disaster of a former love that leaves him still hurt and distrustful, he re-marries. How his tragic forebodings, and distrust threaten his second marriage with shipwreck furnish a theme well suited to Miss Ertz's inimitable style. $2.00.
The Vacationist
—be he week-end or summer-long tripper—will take huge delight in

HONK!
A Motor Romance
By DORIS F. HALMAN

In this vivacious account of a motor trip through Europe by a party of young Americans, the author gives a new twist to stories of European travel, staging comedy and romance on a real background of French and Swiss villages, Spanish castles, the Riviera and a sky-blue Mediterranean. $2.00

ELSWYTH THANE'S
RIDERS OF THE WIND
is in its 7th Printing 7th
A Satisfying Love Story! $2.00

NEW FICTION

WHEN THE DEVIL WAS SICK
By E. J. Rath, Author of "THE NERVOUS WRECK." One of the funniest, most unexpected and altogether delightful stories ever offered the public. Third printing. $2.00

CAPTAIN FLY-BY-NIGHT
By Johnston McCulley, Author of "THE RANGER'S CODE." A charming story in which romance and revolution are interwoven in a series of thrilling incidents. The scene is early California and the plot is founded on events historically correct. "Mr. McCulley has put a great deal of careful work in this story and as a result it is far more satisfactory and convincing than more recent books."—London Literary Supplement. $2.00

THE WEEK-END MYSTERY
By Robert A. Simon. Although primarily a detective story, it is full of genuine characterization and the people who become involved in this strange house party are delightfully real. The book is full of rare entertainment. $2.00

SWORD PLAY
By Charles B. Stilson, Author of "THE ACE OF BLADES," etc. A random quarrel on an English hillside—and a youth is away for France with little to save him but his high-heart and sword. This is an account of the turbulent passage through Seventeenth Century France of Raymond, Son of Denys. Truly, a romantic masterpiece. $2.00

PACIFICO
By William B. Shearer. A great novel of international intrigue. Commander Rodgers of the U. S. Navy, is sent to the Orient on a secret and confidential mission. $2.50

THE AVENGER
By Charles Wesley Sanders, Author of "TROUBLE RANGE." It will be a fortunate year if 1926 sees another Western story that is as good. $2.00

G. HOWARD WATT
NEW YORK PUBLISHER
Whipped Cream

A man of forty-six, his bride twenty-three—
Youth calls to youth—and responds.
Ensue: complications and near disaster;
Affections and intimacies are jeopardized.
With great genius and skill Geoffrey Moss depicts a modern social life, so cleverly, so individually, so real that its problems become the reader's problems and its heartache the heartache of the people about you.

by Geoffrey Moss
The Author of Sweet Pepper
Two Dollars

CONTENTS
FOR MAY, 1926

"THEY SAY" ........................................ 11-13
The Critics' Comment on New Books.
NEW NOVELS FOR MAY .............. 14-21
Fiction by Well-Known Writers—Novels in a Lively Tempo—Tales That Are Different—Sentimental Journeys—War's Aftermath—In Days Gone By—From Foreign Shores—Depicting High Life and Low—Detective Stories—Tales of the Out-of-Doors—Short Story Collections.

THE NON-FICTION SHELF ............. 22-41
Essays and General Literature—Spring Fancies in Drama and Verse—The Portrait Gallery—Mainly Philosophical—Lighter Fare—Life at Sea—Travel—History and World Affairs—Books to Amuse and to Educate—Garden and Nature Volumes—A May Miscellany—Children's Books.

BEST SELLERS OF THE PAST MONTH 45-47
As Reported by Bookstores.

prices are subject to change.
Copyright, 1926, R. R. Bowker Co.
Dorothy H. Knight, Compiler.
Romance is back on the winds of popular favor.

Here's a gorgeous story from a master hand.

THE FOURTH QUEEN

by Isabel Paterson

Author of THE SINGING SEASON

A vivid romance of sea-fights and amorous intrigue at the Court of the good Queen Bess.

$2.00

BONI & LIVERIGHT N.Y.

"THEY SAY"

The Critics Comment on New Books Worth Reading

The book of the season most universally recommended by the critics is "Clara Barron," by Harvey O'Higgins, published by Harper. Heywood Broun in the N. Y. World says, "At last I've come upon a one-best-bet in the field of current fiction. 'Clara Barron' is an enthralling tale. . . . This novel I can recommend without any reservation." Baird Leonard in Life describes it as "one of the most interesting novels I have ever read," and F. P. A. of the N. Y. World, in Our Own Samuel Pepys, says "I deem it the finest book the author hath yet done, which is no faint praise, neither."

Harry Salpeter, also of the N. Y. World, has chosen T. S. Stribling's "Teeftallow," as worthy of laurels—"We hereby beat the drum and dance in the streets for 'Teeftallow.' T. S. Stribling is a two-fisted novelist. 'Teeftallow' is a novel of the Tennessee hill folk which definitely places him above the salt at the table of American novelists. Doubleday, Page has the honor of publishing this novel." And in a later column he adds, "To say that Teeftallow is excellent is merely to state a fact, not an opinion, and the only reviewers who have not praised it are those who have not read it."

Scott Fitzgerald is again in the literary limelight with "All the Sad Young Men" (Scribner). We quote Harry Hansen of the Chicago Daily News: "It is a joy to read these tales. They lack sameness; they are ironical, and sad, and jolly good fun by turns; they scintillate. Moreover, they show F. Scott Fitzgerald keeping step with his generation. F. P. A. expresses his opinion in Our Own Samuel Pepys, N. Y. World, "I liked these better than anything he ever wrote, in especial a tayle called 'Absolution.'"
BOOKS OF THE MONTH

"The Microbe Hunters" by Paul De Kruif (Harcourt), heads Heywood Broun's reading list as more interesting and exciting than any fiction work he has recently read. In the same list he includes Elmer Davis' "Friends of Mr. Sweeney" (Mc-McBride) as "the most amusing novel of the season," as well as "Gentlemen Prefer Blonds," Anita Loos (Boni & Liveright), and "Spanish Bayonet," by Stephen Benét (Doran).

Another non-fiction book which promises well is "Our Times," by Mark Sullivan (Scribner). Harry Hansen calls it "the funniest book of the year and the book that is going to create more talk—more longwinded talk—than any I know!"

The everpresent question as to whether a woman can maintain a home and have a career outside of it is the theme of Storm Jameson's "Three Kingdoms (Knopf). This is what "they" say about it, "Three Kingdoms" is without any doubt the best novel I have ever read about the modern woman and her problem of career, husband and child."—Fanny Butcher; "Miss Jameson has achieved a triumph in her characterization of Laurence Storm."—Baird Leonard; "The author has a feeling for people. . . . It seems to me that Storm Jameson improves with each novel she writes."—Harry Hansen.

H. L. Mencken in the American Mercury recommends "Pig Iron," by Charles G. Norris (Dutton), saying, "I have read it with immense interest, and enjoyed it unflaggingly. Dreiser's title 'An American Tragedy,' would fit it far better than the title it has. For what it sets forth is simply the futility of success, as success is measured in a sordid land. . . ." And if we may quote F. P. A. again, "Read C. Norris's 'Pig Iron,' a good honest book, and wrote with great fidelity of detail." And speaking of "An American Tragedy" itself by Theodore Dreiser (Boni & Liveright), F. P. A. says, "Long though it be, yet it doth fascinate me more than any book I have read in many years."

WHAT TO READ

Meade Minnigerode's "Some American Ladies" (Putnam), receives favorable mention from Harry Salpeter in the N. Y. World, and Keith Preston of the Chicago Daily News. The latter says of the author, "He has made the most of slight material in these portraits with very agreeable results in most instances."

"Blessed is the week that binds Ring Lardner and Milt Gross into books," writers Harry Salpeter in the N. Y. World recently. "'The Love Nest' (Ring Lardner, published by Scribner) is a very fine book, fictional Americana of the first order, all things to all men, good red meat to the general, and caviar to the special." And of "Nize Baby," by Milt Gross, published by Doran, he says, "Its wit is absolute; its simplified spelling reeks with character; its malapropisms are priceless."

And now Heywood Broun offers a new literary diet, adding a few new titles to his previous favorites, and here it is. "Speaking of books, I recommend 'Clara Barron,' 'Lolly Willowes,' by Sylvia Townsend Warner (Viking Press), 'Spanish Bayonet,' 'No More Parades,' by Ford Madox Ford (A. & C. Boni), 'Show Business,' by Thyra Sam­ter Winslow (Knopf), 'Friends of Mr. Sweeney,' and 'The Microbe Hunters.'"
New Novels for May

After Noon. By Susan Ertz. Author of “Madame Claire.” The family affairs and romance of a man old enough to have grown daughters and young enough to find new adventure in life for himself. Appleton, $2.

In a Lively Tempo

Roundabout. By Nancy Hoyt. A gay, satiric first novel which takes its heroine from her home in a Montmartre studio around the world to Washington where she makes her debut in the diplomatic set. Knopf, $2.50.

Late Spring Fiction

Honk! By Doris F. Halman. A romantic tale of three impecunious young Americans who take a motor trip through France, Italy, Spain and Switzerland. Stokes, $2.

Whipped Cream. By Geoffrey Moss. Author of “Sweet Pepper.” A portrait of a frivolous but lovely young girl and her neurotic circle, contrasted with a hero of unusual strength. Doran, $2.

A Sporting Chance. By Margaret Cameron. An irresponsible, irresistible tale of youth and love and laughter, involving a millionaire’s son, a pretty girl and assorted entanglements. Harper, $2.

The Eternal Feminine

O, Genteel Lady! By Esther Forbes. How can life, love or even death overwhelm so genteel a lady, protected by the hoop of her skirts, the buckram of her stays and the code of her ladyhood? A first novel. Houghton, $2.

Juliet Is Twenty. By Jane Abbott. A romance as gay and valiant as youth itself. Juliet is modern and she is twenty! Lippincott, $2.

The Swinging Goddess. By Marjorie Carleton. How the daughter of a circus family tries to hide her parentage and how in the end she finally comes to a real appreciation of their worth. Small, M., $2.

Women Like Men. By Allan Leigh. Depicting a woman’s search for her place in modern life. Trying to live the codeless existence which ever has been the prerogative of the male, she finally relinquishes it in favor of marriage. Macaulay, $2.
BOOKS OF THE MONTH

Tales That Are Different

The Sacred Tree. By Lady Murasaki. Translated by Arthur Waley. The second volume of "The Tale of Genji" carries on with charm this thousand-year-old romance. Houghton, $3.50.

Adam's Breed. By Radcliffe Hall. The story of Gian-Lucca, the strange son of a great poet, and how he lost his soul in a London restaurant and found it again in a green English forest. Doubleday, $2.50.

Sentimental Journeys

The Windy Hill. By Jennings Perry. The story of Clita Moss, a rapturous nymph-like creature, and John Starr, a railway clerk who because of her becomes a knight-errant. Simon & S., $2.

Major Dane's Garden. By M. F. Perham. A story of love and passion and the familiar triangle, laid in tropic Africa. Houghton, $2.50.

Shule Agra. By Kathleen Coyle. Author of "Piccadilly." The story of a modern Irish family and their friends living near Dublin, particularly of "Shule" Hassan, the daughter, who falls desperately in love with Shanad, a dark, brooding mechanic. Dutton, $2.

REALISM vs. ROMANCE

Common of Angels. By Dorothy & Beckett Terrell. Author of "Last Year's Nest." In which the heroine's faith calls her away from a divorced man whom she loves. Appleton, $2.

War's Aftermath

If Today Have No Tomorrow. By Olive Gilbreath. A novel of Russia during the Revolution—the story of Michael Acar and the conflict between his Russian love of life and his English sense of duty. Dutton, $2.

From Double Eagle to Red Flag. By General P. N. Krassnoff. A novel of Czardom, war and revolution embracing the period from 1894 to 1921, in which the names and situations are real. 2 vols. Duffield, $7.50.

Plain Americans. By Mary Helen Fee. A novel revealing some of the many types that go to make up American social life. Much of it is laid against the background of the World War. McClurg, $2.

In Days Gone By

The Splendid Shilling. By Idwal Jones. Romance, adventure and daring are in this novel of a boy whose gypsy blood carries him from Wales to California of the roistering fifties. Doubleday, $2.

For the King. By Alan Douglas. A dashing novel with plot based upon the mixed identity of twin brothers, one of whom is a Royalist, the other a Roundhead, one a trusted officer of Cromwell, the other at King Charles' right hand. Macrae Smith, $2.

Rio Bravo. By Edwin L. Sabin, An adventurous romance of the Texan frontier in the days of Zachariah Taylor, when the Rio Grande River was known by its Mexican name of Rio Bravo. Macrae Smith, $2.
BOOKS OF THE MONTH

From "The Great Valley." Little, Brown

Spanish Faith. By Francis Bellamy. Old Mexico in the days of Spanish rule is the setting of this romantic tale of high adventure. Harper, $2.

The Great Valley. By Mary Johnston. Author of "The Slave Ship." The hardships of frontier life are vividly pictured in this novel of Elizabeth Selkirk's girlhood in the Shenandoah Valley, and later her marriage and trip westward amid the dangers of the French and Indian War. Little, B., $2.

Bonanza: A Story of the Gold Trail. By William MacLeod Raine. Author of "The Desert's Price." A novel of the gold-boom towns of the sixties and how two brothers, one a gambler, the other a pony-express rider, brought law and order out of riotous anarchy. Doubleday, $2.

From Foreign Shores

The Ninth Thermidor. By M. A. Aldanov. An historical romance of the time of Catherine the Great; the hero, a young diplomat who visits various countries of Europe. Knopf, $2.50.

HIGH LIFE AND LOW

Beatrice. By Arthur Schnitzler. Author of "Fräulein Else." Beatrice sets out to protect her son, just home from school, from the wiles of a beautiful adventuress. But that proves only the beginning of her own greatest adventure. Simon & S., $1.50.

Things Greater Than He. By Luciano Zuccoli. An Italian novelist's story of Giorgio, a boy with a poet's sensitive imagination, and of his uncomprehending bourgeois family. Holt, $2.50.

Cat and Candle. By Palle Rosenkrantz. A lively tale of tangled loves by a Danish author whose work is especially popular in Scandinavia and Germany. Doubleday, $2.

Opposite Poles of Life

The House-Maid. By Naomi G. Royde-Smith. Author of "The Tortoise-Shell Cat." The story of a house-maid's career, chronicling the effects of her far-reaching ambitions on a group of people ignorant of her very existence. Knopf, $2.50.

Mary Christmas. By Mary Ellen Chase. The story of an Armenian woman peddler and the romance she brought to the villages along the Maine coast. Illus. Little, B., $1.50.
BOOKS OF THE MONTH

Count Bruga. By Ben Hecht. Author of “Erik Dorn.” A satire, a mystery story and a romance all rolled into one. Liveright, $2.

The Bat. By Mary Roberts Rinehart and AveryHopwood. A novelization of the famous mystery play. Doran, $2.

The Vanity Case. By Carolyn Wells. Two adjoining Long Island settlements are suddenly stunned and puzzled by the death of beautiful Myra Heath. Putnam, $2.

Madame Judas. By Margaret Turnbull. An exciting murder mystery introducing Juliet Jackson, the “Female Ferret.” Lippincott, $2.

IN THE GREAT OPEN SPACES

The Lone Lodge Mystery. By John Hawk. For the perennial lover of detective stories this offers excitement and an unexpected conclusion. Doran, $2.

Child of the Wild. By Edison Marshall. Author of “The Sleeper of the Moonlit Ranges.” A little boy is cast ashore on the unfriendly Alaskan coast; as a man he returns to his own people to fight for his heritage and his love. Cosmopolitan Bk., $2.

The Valley of the Stars. By Charles Alden Seltzer. Author of “Brass Commandments.” A lively Western tale of a two-gun man and a young girl from the East who went into partnership on a Montana ranch and fought a band of cattle rustlers. Century, $2.

Half-Hour Tales

BOOKS OF THE MONTH

Here and Beyond. By Edith Wharton. Author of "The Mother's Recompense." Six of Mrs. Wharton's most significant short stories, offering a variety of theme and background. Three of them are psychic in nature. Appleton, $2.50.

Children of the Twilight. By Emma Lindsay Squier. A series of stories based on legends of the vanishing Americans. Cosmopolitan Bk., $2.

Essays and General Literature

Notorious Literary Attacks. Edited by Albert Mordell. A collection of fifteen devastatingly critical essays that have had their effect on the literature of this and the previous century. Liveright, $2.50.

THE REALM OF NON-FICTION

From "The Romany Stain" by Christopher Morley Doubleday

Copy—1926. An unusual anthology made up of stories, plays, poems and essays written by members of the Writers Club of Columbia University. Appleton, $2.

From Goethe to Hauptmann. By Camillo Von Klenze. A survey of German and comparative literatures, showing the cultural development of the 19th century. Viking Pr., $2.50.

City Pavements vs. Country Lanes

The Freedom of the City. By Charles Downing Lay. Defending the city's spires and canyons as opposed to the open spaces of the country, the author contends that the city is an ideal place of residence. Duffield, $1.

Spring Fancies in Drama and Verse

Going to the Stars. By Vachel Lindsay. Author of "Going to the Sun." Lindsay's first new book of poems in several years. It reveals his love and understanding of nature, particularly of the Western mountain country. Appleton, $2.

HANGMAN'S HOUSE
By DONN BYRNE

The newest and best of all Donn Byrne's great romances.

Romancer, poet, gallant sportsman, great artist and great man, a Donn Byrne is born to bless this world with his bold, colorful, high-hearted stories once in a hundred years. A nobler Byron, a more musical Dumas, a more vital Meredith, a swifter moving Scott—here he is, Donn Byrne! And no one can tell a story like him.

HANGMAN'S HOUSE is a story of leprechauns and revolutionaries, of steeple chases and fox hunts, of the fighting which strong men do with their hands, of brave hearts which never falter, of love which wins its own.

Illustrated, $2.50. Special edition, autographed, limited to 345 copies, $10.00.

25th thousand four weeks before publication.

"HANGMAN'S HOUSE is the really great book we have been awaiting from Mr. Byrne's hands."
—London Times.

"High tragedy and riotous comedy. Mr. Byrne at his bravest and best."
—London Morning Post.

CENTURY
Enduring Books
ERNEST PASCAL

Author of
"THE DARK SWAN"
"THE VIRGIN FLAME"
writes another brilliant American novel.

Cynthia Coventry

An uncompromising and intimate study of the modern American girl. $2.00

"Worth reading both because it is a good story, and Mr. Pascal is an accurate observer of life."—(N. Y. World)

Young Love

By John G. Brandon

"Not a sentimental romance but a lively jolly, buoyant tale with a chuckle on every page and a plot that keeps one wide awake. It is after the Wodehouse type."—(The Outlook) $2.00

Publishers BRENTANO'S New York

ABROAD IN BOOKS

Picturesque Corners of the Globe

Travel Charts and Travel Chats. By Frederick L. Collins. A breezy, unconventional sort of guide book on western Europe, giving tips on where to go, what to see, expenses involved, etc. Bobbs-M., $2.50.

Majorca. By Henry C. Shelley. From "VIGNETTES OF THE SEA" Harcourt island off the coast of Spain, which was the last stronghold of the Moors in Europe. Illus. Little, B., $2.50.

In Himalayan Tibet. By A. Reeve Heber and Kathleen M. Heber. A fascinating description of a little known country by those who have lived there for some years. Lippincott, $6.

World Problems

Italy: The Central Problem of the Mediterranean. By Count Antonio Cippico. Italy's position among the nations of modern Europe as defined in an address before the Institute of Politics. Yale Univ. Pr., $2.
The Map of America's Making Drafted by Paul M. Paine
Designer of "The Map of Adventures"

Printed in warm and beautiful tones with bright touches of color enlivening the scores of little illustrative drawings, this map of the United States will afford many an hour of enjoyment of its drawings and legends. It is intended—

"For those who would, through books, sail with the discoverers, seek freedom with the colonists, thrill to the liberty bell, follow the westward trails and behold

THE BUILDING OF THE REPUBLIC
now in its 150th year."

Size 22 x 28"—4 colors
Suitable for Child's Room or Library
Price $2.50

R. R. BOWKER CO., Publishers
New York

TO SUIT THE MOOD

"Bridging" the Time

Complete Auction Bridge. By Wilbur C. Whitehead. Every phase of bidding, leading and play fully explained by a well-known expert. Stokes, $2.50.

To Keep You Guessing

If You Would Write

Better Writing. By Henry Seidel Canby. The editor of the Saturday Review of Literature discusses the subtler qualities of style and the psychological principles involved in getting literary effects. Harcourt, $1.50.

How to Write a Short Story. By Michael Joseph. Suggestions for the would-be writer by the manager of one of the large literary agencies. Holt, $1.75.

Forms of Poetry. By Louis Untermeyer. Intended for those interested in verse forms and modern poetry. Contains explanation of poetical terms with examples. Harcourt, $1.50.
Again—“the cleverest rogue in recent fiction” —

The Strange Adventures of Mr. Collin
By FRANK HELLER

If you are not already acquainted with the delightfully resourceful Mr. Collin, you owe it to yourself to meet him. $2

Can You Solve It?
A Book of Puzzles and Problems
By ARTHUR HIRSCHBERG

An appetizing array of brain-twisters—some cross-words—and a lot of other “teasers.” $2

Woman’s Dilemma
By ALICE BEAL PARSONS

Can a woman fight side by side with a man in the business world—and not thwart her home-keeping instincts and responsibilities? A vigorous book which is bound to provoke discussion. $2.50

THOS. Y. CROWELL COMPANY
New York
Gilbert Frankau's New Novel

MASTERSON

A Sensation in England
A Sensation in America

Forced into the wrong environment, married to the wrong woman, overwhelmed with inherited obligations, John Masterson sees it through! $2.00

Harper & Brothers

THE WHAT-NOT

The Busy Man's Reference Shelf

A May Miscellany

Art Through the Ages. By Helen Gardner. A general survey with more space than in other histories devoted to art in India, China, Japan and America. Illus. Harcourt, $4.

Imagination and Religion. By S. Parkes Cadman. Those who read Dr. Cadman's daily newspaper articles or hear him speak over the radio will welcome this volume. Macmillan, $1.50.

HEARTS OF HICKORY
By JOHN TROTWOOD MOORE

Now in its second Big Edition is one of the Really Great Books of the Year.

"An exceedingly good book. It is drama; Hearts of Hickory takes a prominent place among those volumes which capture for present day readers something of the drama, and dash, and glamour of the earlier American Scene. This book is almost a plethora of color and appeal. The reader's interest stays focused upon this picturesquely portrayed romance."

"It is romance; it is history. It is all that a historical novel should be and more."

—Oregon Journal (Portland)

"It has color, earnestness and fire: it has real historical value."

—Enquirer (Cincinnati)

"A sterling Southern novel."

—Times (Cleveland)

$2.00

COKESBURY PRESS
NASHVILLE TENNESSEE

ANOTHER FANTÔMAS BOOK — AND ONE OF THE BEST

JUVE IN THE DOCK
By MARCEL ALLAIN

Disguised as a "Receiver of Stolen Goods," the indefatigable Juve plans to get in touch with the "Lord of Terror" in connection with a mysterious document purporting to reveal the place of concealment of a hidden treasure, and so effect the malefactor's arrest. But once more the Arch-Criminal proves too much for the famous detective and his staunch ally, the journalist, Jerome Fandor.

$2.00 net

DAVID MCKAY COMPANY
Publishers
Philadelphia
These Are the Books People Are Reading—

Second Large Printing
Our Times: The Turn of the Century
By Mark Sullivan Illustrated $5.00

Second Large Printing
Fix Bayonets!
By John W. Thomason, Jr. Illustrated $3.50

Third Large Printing
Dollars Only
By Edward W. Bok $1.75

Second Large Printing
All the Sad Young Men
By F. Scott Fitzgerald $2.00

Second Large Printing
The Love Nest AND OTHER STORIES
By Ring W. Lardner $1.75

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, NEW YORK

Never read borrowed books: to be without books of your own is the abyss of penury. Don’t endure it.

RUSKIN
‘His story beggars fiction. No novelist would have dared it.’ 1 Think of it? ‘A slight little man without the prestige of high public station moving softly as a kitten with the moulders of history during the most dramatic and important period since the fall of feudalism,’ 2 and ‘holding such conversations with kings and kaisers as no private citizen carried on before.’ 3

You have read extracts from THE INTIMATE PAPERS OF COLONEL HOUSE in the papers. You have heard of the discussion that raged about it in Congress. You have seen it praised in the press beyond any other book of recent years. Now read it complete in book form and find out for yourself why it has been called ‘one of the most important documents in all history.’ 4

Two Volumes Illustrated, $10.00

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN CO.

Fiction Best Sellers

THE PRIVATE LIFE OF HELEN OF TROY. John Erskine, $2.50
GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES. Anita Loos, 1.75
THE HOUNDS OF SPRING. Sylvia Thompson, 3.00
THE BLUE WINDOW. Temple Bailey, 2.00
PIG IRON. Charles G. Norris, 2.00
THUNDER ON THE LEFT. Christopher Morley, 2.00
UNCHANGING QUEST. Sir Philip Gibbs, 2.00
THE BLACK FLEMINGS. Kathleen Norris, 2.00
WILD GESE. Martha Ostenso, 2.00
THE PERENNIAL BACHELOR. Anne Parrish, 2.00
THREE KINGDOMS. Storm Jameson, 2.50
APPASSIONATA. Fannie Hurst, 2.00
HEARTS OF HICKORY. John Trotwood Moore, 2.00
THE HIGH ADVENTURE. Jeffery Farnol, 2.00
AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY. Theodore Dreiser, 5.00
BEAU GESTE. Capt. P. C. Wren, 2.00
THE VANISHING AMERICAN. Zane Grey, 2.00
THE GOLDEN BEAST. E. Phillips Oppenheim, 2.00
GLASS HOUSES. Eleanor Gisycka, 2.00
A MAN UNDER AUTHORITY. Ethel M. Dell, 2.00
RIDERS OF THE WIND. Elswyth Thane, 2.00
WOMEN. Booth Tarkington, 2.00
MANHATTAN TRANSFER. John Dos Passos, 2.00
THE BLIND GODDESS. Arthur Train, 2.00
SORRELL AND SON. Warwick Deeping, 2.50
The Letters of Sir Walter Raleigh
Edited by Lady Raleigh

"There is more 'vital pleasure' to be found in these letters than in a whole shelf full of orthodox and dull biography." — New York Herald Tribune.
Two volumes, illustrated, boxed, $7.00

Life and Letters of Thomas Jefferson
by Francis W. Hirst

"We have few finer portraits than this of one of the most brilliant, puzzling, many-sided personalities in American history, and none more sympathetic." — The Independent.
Illustrated, $6.00

Italy Under Mussolini
by William Bolitho

The first truthful, accurate and reliable account of Fascism by the brilliant European correspondent of The New York World.
$2.50

Chimes
A Novel by Robert Herrick

Every phase of undergraduate life has been poured into the pot-pourri of recent novels; Robert Herrick takes the life of the professor as his theme and weaves around it an ironic story of our "educational factories." A novel for undergraduates, alumni, professors and trustees.
$2.00

Odtaa
A Novel by John Masefield

The author of "Sard Harker"

"Masefield is a fine romancer and those who read 'Sard Harker' know it well. The only fish you catch in this book is another whale of a story... Put your trust in Masefield and great will be your reward in pleasure." — Brooklyn Eagle.
$2.50

The Duffer's Handbook of Golf
by Grantland Rice
Illustrated by Clare Briggs

A famous sports writer and the premier portrait painter of Dufferdom have combined their talents in this unique and complete golf book.
$3.50

The Macmillan Company
New York Chicago Boston
Atlanta Dallas San Francisco
MILTON C. WORK'S NEW BOOK
RELEASED APRIL FIFTH
THE DAY THAT THE NEW LAWS
BECAME EFFECTIVE

Auction Bridge Complete
Including the NEW 1926 LAWS
Not only the ABC but also the XYZ of Auction Bridge

INDISPENSABLE TO EVERY BRIDGE PLAYER
If you play Bridge, or are about to learn, you need Mr. Work's new book. It is complete, from the elementary principles to the latest and most advanced methods of bidding and play.

BRIDGE BY THE MASTER OF THE GAME
MR. WORK—author, broadcaster, expert player, teacher of teachers and law maker stands pre-eminent as the international authority on Bridge. His new book, AUCTION BRIDGE COMPLETE, is for all who would learn to play Bridge expertly.

Cloth. Illustrated. Over 500 pages, $2.00 Net
PRIZE or GIFT EDITION, FLEXIBLE LEATHER, Autographed by the Author. Price.....$3.50 Net

THE JOHN C. WINSTON COMPANY
PUBLISHERS PHILADELPHIA

ORDER FORM
(Send to address on front cover)

Gentlemen:
Please send the following books:

(If you have no account with us send cash with order.)

Name_________________________
Street________________________
City_________________________ State_______
The Story of an Old-Fashioned Girl

ELIZABETH'S TOWER

From a lovable, tender appealing child of ten, Elizabeth grows in years and character to full womanhood without losing a particle of her charm, and becomes a bright tower of strength to every person in the story. She wins your love and admiration from the start, and leaves you with a sense of unmixed pleasure and approval.

By Margaret Weymouth Jackson

$2.00 BOBBS-MERRILL