Because many rural areas will not have enough children to keep a school open, many schools will close. This is going to be a great loss to the community as well as the children.

I believe the quality of education far exceeds that of larger schools. Due the teachers know all of the children's family. They do not have a discipline problem either. I am glad that my sons have the advantage of a country school background.

Our school was featured in the Farmland Newspaper in April 1976. It is published by Farmland Industries, Kansas City, Mo.
