Lynn C. Garrison Missing in Action in Europe Month

Sgt. Lynn C. Garrison has been missing in action over Germany since Dec. 24, according to word received by his wife, Margaret, who with their 15-months old son, Robin, lives at the home of Sergeant Garrison's sister, Mrs. Ray Bissell, 1912 Seventh Ave. Mrs. Garrison's home is in Taylor.

Sergeant Garrison, a gunner on a B-24, was based in England since June 1944, and will have been in the service two years in August, 1945. He had nearly completed his missions and expected to be sent home in a few weeks. He attended the Teachers college here in 1936-37. His mother, Mrs. Luella Garrison, and a brother, L. J. Garrison, live at Burwell. He had received a citation for valor, held the air medal with two oak-leaf clusters and had two bronze stars.
