TITLE: Child Marriages Globally: Legal and Social Implications

ABSTRACT: Child marriages often involve young girls being married to adult men with this practice occurring daily throughout the world from the smallest villages to the largest cities. Girls Not Brides reports that 12 million girls under the age of 18 years are married annually with 23 girls being married every minute. This presentation will examine efforts across several countries to address underage marriage. This practice will be examined from an international perspective including Columbia, Lesotho, Mexico, Myanmar, Panama, Vietnam, and the United States of America.
