Dear Home Traveler

We are off tomorrow for Ireland, I regret not getting to the Kilmer. This period is always a hard one for me, and one thing and another prevented me, I have been thru all the struggles of breaking up our establishment, strange business, and this and that — but this letter is just to say that I regret not being with you at the dinner?

21st

Sincerely yours
Robert F. Jones

(I should of course not forget to mention to the members this point is always a bad one for the cause and it is the most important one) I have been thinking of the possibility of the possibility of
