Call for Papers<sup>1</sup>

The Mountain Plains Journal of Business and Technology (MPJBT) is a no-fee, open access, double blind peer-reviewed journal published by the College of Business and Technology at the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

The journal publishes original scholarly research, conceptual and empirical papers, industry notes, invited essays, case studies, and book reviews that are of interest to academics or practitioners. From time to time, the journal will publish special issues devoted to important topics in business and associated technologies.

MPJBT is inviting papers for its next issue to be published online on December 15, 2020, covering topics related to TECHNOLOGY as it affects functions within organizations (for profit, not-for-profit, government, higher education, military, religious institutions, etc.) in areas of:

- cyber-security issues
- privacy protections
- ransomware
- cloud computing
- telecommunications
- pedagogy
- etc.

Authors may submit book reviews<sup>2</sup>, as well as papers on emerging issues, trends, and innovations in Technology as it would affect organizational management.

The deadline for submissions of manuscripts is October 1, 2020.

Papers should be submitted at <https://openspaces.unk.edu/cgi/submit.cgi?context=mpjbt>

Author guidelines can be found at <https://openspaces.unk.edu/mpjbt/styleguide.html>
